Mrs. Virginia A. Blair

Dedication

The Senior Class of 1962 proudly, but humbly, takes great honor in dedicating the 1962 "Cardinal" to Mrs. Virginia A. Blair. During the past two years, as we have matured to young adults, we have experienced both failure and success. Individually or collectively Mrs. Blair has, in her own way, soothed the hurt of failure or added to the joy of success.

We shall never forget you Mrs. Blair. The memory of your wit, constructive criticisms and vibrant personality will remain with us always.

In Appreciation

The staff of the 1962 "Cardinal" wishes to pay homage to one of our faculty to which a tremendous debt is owed, Mr. James R. Reid. Through his personal efforts and by long, hard, hours of work by both he and his groups our school has benefited academically and socially. Though at times there has been disagreement, we have always had to admire him for his drive and spirit.

With this in mind, the staff, in deep appreciation, wishes to express to you, Mr. Reid, our gratitude for a job well done.

Mr. James R. Reid

Spotlight - The School

Congratulations! Some very devoted and hard-working people have just published another issue of the Cardinal Yearbook. As you browse from page to page I hope you will share the feeling with me that here is represented a lot of effort.

But wait - this is just one small part of the school's program. Did you know that the average student spends thirty percent of his waking time each year attending school or in doing school work? It, (the school), is second only to the home as a place where the student devotes time towards physical, moral, mental and social growth. In this issue of the Cardinal the staff has chosen to spotlight the school in all of its aspects. With so many changes and challenges present in today's world, what could be more appropriate?

When people get in deep spiritual trouble they are told to pray and read the Bible. Likewise, when we get into trouble educational, we should re-examine our schools every phase of them. After careful and fair appraisal we should then forget all of the wonderful things that our program of education has done for the people of our community during its many years of existence.

Laurence M. Helsel
Principal

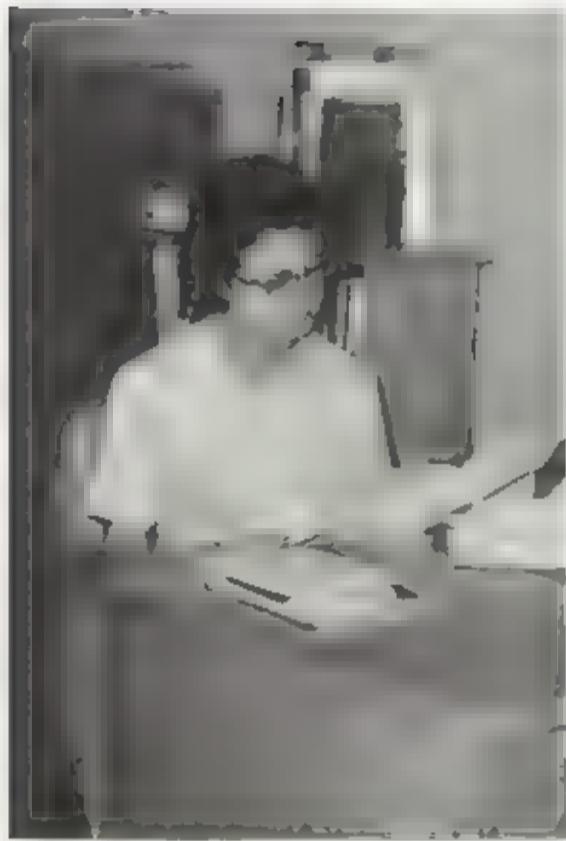

High school graduation will mean to most of you the termination of formal training. By now you have a pretty clear picture of yourself. You know your strong points, and you are fairly well acquainted with the areas in which your weaknesses exist. What is done from this point on will be pretty much up to the individual.

Many members of the class of 1962 will be highly successful. Others will be less successful. The difference between success and failure is sometimes spelled out by certain attributes in everyone's make-up. Certain character traits, which everyone possesses to a degree, promote success. Other traits, which we all have, deny us success or the opportunity to succeed. Therefore, one of your life-long responsibilities will be to cultivate those characteristics that will aid and help you to succeed in a competitive society and to control those traits that will inhibit your progress or cause you to fail. This will not be easy. In fact it will be most difficult. Your success in any given endeavor will, therefore, be determined to a large extent on how well you succeed in accomplishing the above described task.

To each and everyone of you, then, I wish a very happy graduation and a successful entrance into the trade or profession of your choice.

Harry W. Ray
Supervising Principal

Last Will and Testament

We the Senior Class of One Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixty-two, of the city of Cochranton, County of Crawford, do hereby write, publish and declare this to be our final Will and Testament, hereby replacing all commitments made by said group at any time heretofore.

FIRST: To the faculty and administration of the Cochranton Area Joint Junior-Senior High School of Cochranton, Pennsylvania, we leave a record that has not been equaled in the past and one that will undoubtedly be used for comparison by all future classes of said school.

SECOND: To the class of '65 we leave all secrets that will insure success as members of the Senior High.

THIRD: If it is agreeable to those in charge, to the class of '64 we leave a section of the library under the general heading of "How to Win Friends and Influence People."

FOURTH: To the class of '63, we leave all our treasury books and secrets of financial success plus a perfect report from Washington, which they undoubtedly will want to challenge.

FIFTH: All the remainder of our property, abilities, eccentricities and faults we bestow on the individuals listed as follows:

Craig Barnes leaves his slalom to the high school trophy case.
Ginny Bell leaves her anatomy to the Harlem Globetrotters.
Gayle Beuchat leaves her ability to not be on time to the music room to Brenda Smock.

Roy Blackwood leaves his 25,000 social living Brownie points as collateral for his brother Gary.

Tom Blose leaves his good manners and quiet ways to his brothers Ethan and Gary.

Patty Boyd leaves with the satisfaction that she's read at least half the books in the library.

Steve Carrol leaves knowing how he spent every penny--All twelve cents.

Ron Chapin leaves all the ninth grade girls clutching their broken hearts.

Chuck Derby leaves his sandals to anyone with blisters.

Bill Diamon leaves to find a lady mechanic.

Dolores Ferlin leaves her million dollar smile to the Colgate Company.

Betty Ferrier leaves her record for the most broken st竹ubes to anyone who feels they can afford the position.

Kathy Ford leaves nothing as she is taking all with her.

Dale Gage leaves, grateful for the opportunity.

Dick George attributes his financial success to the teachings of John D. Rockefeller.

Linda Graham leaves for Hollywood to become a stand-in for Elizabeth Taylor.

Carolyn Hall leaves her candle to all those Juniors who feel they cannot successfully withstand the Washington trip.

John Heltzel leaves his ankle-straps to all his weak-ankled friends.

John Hollingshead leaves to perfect a bomb to blow up the world.

Dorothy Hunt leaves all of her 4' 11" to Howard Maloney.

Kip Jeannerett leaves his four speed transmission to Henry Campbell.

Harry Jewell another member of the long line of Jewells graduates.

Linda Johnson leaves setting an example in mannerisms to the class of '64. "Who need it."

Lee Keas leaves knowing he is Craig Barne's equal in water skiing.

Andy Kolean leaves for Pittsburg Hospital to visit all of his nurses.

Vicky Lesn leaves the color of her hair for Dawn Armstrong to try.

LaVerne Lincoln leaves his calm even disposition to Beth Beers.

Wilda Lyons leaves her A's in shorthand tests to all girls who want to get ahead.

Gary Mead leaves . . . Enough said!

Janet McLean leaves her well-used telephone to Carol Stubbs.

Janet Mook leaves to find Elizabeth.

Lyle Mook leaves his tardiness to typing class to Jim DuPont.

Maxine Mall leaves knowing she can give 10 easy lessons on how to get a man and hold him.

Sandy Myers leaves her cheery "Good morning Lyles" to whoever awakes before noon.

Chuck Peterson leaves his F.F.A. ability to Tom Graham.

Jeannette Peterson leaves her shyness to Jimmy Carnahan.

Roberta Peterson leaves her neatness to Marsha Miller.

Larry Price leaves his long curly hair to Scott Kinney.

Mike Shook leaves to follow in the footsteps of Gene Krupa.

Nancy Shreckengost leaves with the "crying" trophy.

Lenora Smith leaves her ability as an actress to Kathy Griffin.

Larry Stevens leaves his authoritative powers as Senior Class President to any junior who can fill his shoes.

Bob Strayer leaves his musical talents to Dale Oakes.

Ernie Vincent leaves his love of English to Dave Harvey.

Sharen Williams leaves her bowling ability to Shirley Hart.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our hand and seal this sixth day of June, in the witness of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-two.

Mrs. Hitchcock, librarian, shows her assistants the proper way to check out books.

Library Assistants

Another job of the girls is to rearrange and replace returned books.

These girls are checking the reading material from the magazine rack.

The Sr. Tri-Hi-Y is our school's most active service organization. Among its many projects are Christmas baskets for the needy.

Sr. Tri Hi Y

Jr. Tri Hi Y

Jr. Tri-Hi-Y members learn the fundamentals of the organization.

The Cohiso Association is composed of all the treasurers of every organization in the school.

Cohiso Association

During the past year the Student Council has attempted to improve in any way possible, Cochranton High School. We feel that the goal of a Student Council is to provide a better social and academic life for the students of its school. We leave our accomplishments as a goal for a future Student Councils.

Steve Carroll
President
Student Council
1961-1962

Student Council

A proud addition to the school gymnasium, a large Cardinal is looked over by council officers. Don Gill, V-Pres., Hazel Rose, Sec., Dot Hart, Treas., and Steve Carroll, Pres., and their advisor, Mr. Kerr.

Sr. High Craft Club

Club members working on some leather projects, one of the many crafts they have learned.

Jr. High Craft Club

These members are learning how to use the tools necessary for good craft skills.

Sr. High
Art
Club

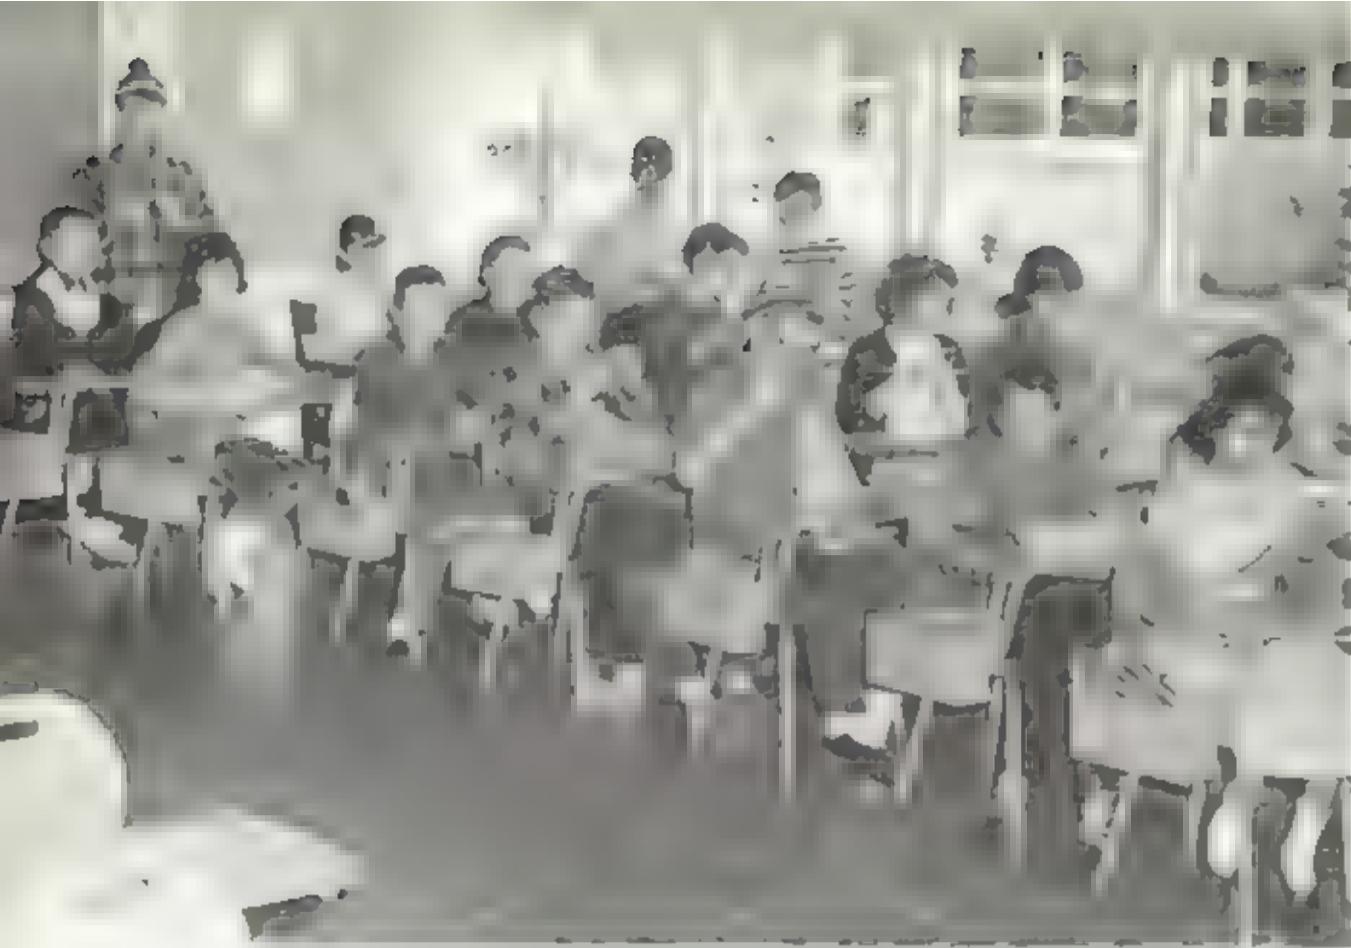

Art is an important part of our activity program. It offers an excellent "break" from studies, for the students.

Jr. High Art Club

Junior Art Club members are taught the procedures for improving their artistic skills.

Knitting Club

The newest addition to the activity schedule is Mrs. Porter's highly successful knitting club. It is the fastest growing group in the school.

Future Homemakers of America

Members of the F. H. A. learn the principle of being a good homemaker.

Seniors seriously considering the profession of teaching as a career, are members of the F. T. A.

Future Teachers of America

Mr. Delcl, advisor, describes the working of this instrument to his students the senior radio Club.

Radio Clubs

Junior Radio Club members learn the elementary facts of a radio.

Cardinal Capers

Reporters, editors, and typists are all essential parts of our school newspaper, the Cardinal Capers, which is published monthly.

Sr. GAA.

Jr. GAA.

Sportsmanship, skill in sports, and competing for special awards are all part of the G. A. A.'s program for sports.
